SIDNEY BALL MEMORIAL LECTURE

Professor Greg Duncan

(University of California, Irvine)

'Poverty and Child Development'

Professor Duncan has published extensively on issues of income distribution, child poverty and welfare dependence. He co-authored 'Higher Ground: New Hope for the Working Poor and Their Children' (2007) and co-edited 'For Better or For Worse: Welfare Reform and the Well-being of Children and Families' (2001), 'Consequences of Growing up Poor' (1997) and 'Neighbourhood Poverty' (1997). For many years he ran the U.S. Panel Study of Income Dynamics and he continues to study neighbourhood effects on the development of children and adolescents and other issues involving welfare reform, income distribution and its consequences for children and adults.
