

The Votes are in and the winner is...

“Zot Stock – Summer of Love”

Join Academic Affairs for the 21st Annual UCI Staff Appreciation Picnic!

Thursday, September 1, 2011

11:30 am to 1:30 pm - Aldrich Park

Activities include competition for the best Zot Stock (Woodstock) themed department display, the best dressed Hippie (be creative!), and of course some fun “summer of love” games

More information and food assignments to follow...

Peace, love and harmony

Did you know...The original Woodstock concert of 1969 was held on Max Yasgur's farmland, near Bethel, N.Y. It was originally supposed to held near the town of Walkill, N.Y., but after a dispute about the amount of people expected and zoning laws concerning portable toilets, the Walkill Zoning board cancelled the concert so it was moved to Max's farm! The Woodstock festival lasted for four days....
August 15, 16, 17 and 18 1969